

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

MANY BOATS DAMAGED BY WIND AND RAIN

Government Tug and Sand Driver Driven Ashore at Old Point Comfort by the Gale.

NO LIVES ARE REPORTED LOST

Hampton Creek Lashed Into a Tempest by the Hurricane—Trees Blown Down in Different Parts of the County and City—Home Grounds Suffer From Storm.

The severe wind and rain storm, which passed over the Peninsula yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, did considerable damage to trees and fences in the county and caused the water men a great deal of anxiety.

The government tug Phillips and the big sand river were blown ashore in the rear of the Chamberlin. Many small vessels suffered.

The Martin, laden with Oyster, had to be towed into Norfolk with her sails, entirely gone, while an unknown barge, also laden with the bivalves, was blown ashore near Back river. This boat lost her main sails. Many small yawl boats had thrilling times making for the shore.

The roof was torn off the officer's bath room at Old Point and the schooner, Mollie Williams, which left Hampton with oysters for the for the north, was relieved of her jibs.

The wind blew a hurricane in Hampton creek and along Hampton Roads and watermen are anxious for the small fishing smacks.

A large tree in front of the Sherwood Hotel, Old Point, was uprooted.
Trees were blown down in Phoebus and many wires were broken.

At Riverview the storm came with great force. Wind, accompanied by hail and rain, almost caused a panic among the residents of that section.
It was reported last night that many trees throughout the county were blown down.

A peculiar feature in connection with the storm is the path which it followed. Coming to a point below the new powerhouse the rain and wind cut through the town of Hampton and resumed its work just at Hampton bridge.

Much damage was done to the trees and shrubbery at the National Soldiers' Home.

BETTER SCHOOLS FOR POQUOSON DISTRICT

York County Tax Payers Determined to Have Them in the Very Near Future.

That the property owners in Poquoson district, York county, are determined to have better school houses was thoroughly manifested in a meeting of the citizens of that section Monday night.

Many of the larger tax payers in the district assembled in the Bank of Poquoson building and adopted strong resolutions praying the board of supervisors of the county to request Judge D. Gardner Tyler of the Circuit Court, to call a special election to ascertain the view of the tax payers on the school question.

Supervisors to Act.
It is expected that the supervisors will take the action on the resolutions at its meeting on Thursday of next week. Judge Tyler will be asked to take one day in June or July for the election.

Superintendent of Schools J. S.
Phillips has for the last two years been working for better school houses throughout York county. It now seems likely that he will see his desires fully satisfied.

of this week. The examination of teachers throughout the county will begin today and will be on three
